27 1.

This block contains the first ending of a musical piece, starting at measure 27. It consists of four staves: three treble clefs and one bass clef. The key signature has two sharps (F# and C#). The melody in the treble staves features eighth and sixteenth notes, with some measures containing rests. The bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with eighth and sixteenth notes. The first ending is marked with a bracket and the number '1.' above the first staff. The section concludes with a double bar line and repeat dots.

30 2.

This block contains the second ending of the musical piece, starting at measure 30. It also consists of four staves: three treble clefs and one bass clef, in the same key signature of two sharps. The musical notation follows a similar pattern to the first ending, with eighth and sixteenth notes in the treble and bass staves. The second ending is marked with a bracket and the number '2.' above the first staff. The section concludes with a double bar line and repeat dots.

There's a hole in the world tonight.
There's a cloud of fear and sorrow.
There's a hole in the world tonight.
Don't let there be a hole in the world tomorrow.

They say that anger is just love disappointed.
They say that love is just a state of mind.
But all this fighting over who is anointed,
Oh, how can people be so blind?

*Solo, chor vocalise **

There's a hole in the world tonight.
There's a cloud of fear and sorrow.
There's a hole in the world tonight.
Don't let there be a hole in the world tomorrow.

Oh, they tell me there's a place over yonder
Cool water running through the burning sand.
Until we learn to love one another,
We will never reach the Promised Land.

(There's a hole in the world tonight.)
They say that anger is just love disappointed.
(There's a cloud of fear and sorrow.)
They say that love is just a state of mind.
(There's a hole in the world tonight.)
But all this fighting over who will be anointed,
(Don't let there be a hole in the world tomorrow.)
Oh, how can people be so blind?
